Dear Harold:

Thank you very much for a very pleasant week spent in McMinnville. The meeting at the Arlington congregation was a source of real encouragement and pleasure to me. The members of the congregation received the lessons so well, your own interest in my welfare was genuine, and every indication by those who attended was encouraging. I thoroughly enjoyed being with you during the week and found my already high esteem for you increasing by the day.

I profited from our opportunities to talk on several occasions during the week. It was deeply refreshing for me to hear you voice some things that have also of late become subjects of my own concern as well.

You are making a unique contribution to the welfare and life of men and women in Warren county. I salute you and I admire you.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
